ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Manuel Castro-Mesa (Castro-Mesa) (Filing No. 42). Castro-Mesa seeks an additional thirty days in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Castro-Mesa's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 42) is granted. Castro-Mesa is given until on or before May 20, 2016, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between April 15, 2016, and May 20, 2016, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 15th day of April, 2016.

s/ Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
